

Future of Work Conference
Session 3A: Labor Law Reforms: An Overview
Speakers Bios

Mr. Rajan Verma

Ex Chief Labour Commissioner, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Govt. of India

Ex Advisor, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Govt. of India

For 33 years from the year 1987 to 2020 have been part of Labour Inspection and Labour Administration in various capacities at the level of Govt. of India and also was intensively involved in labour laws reforms process.

Attended two International training at International training centre of ILO, Turin, Italy in the year 2011 on Labour inspection and Labour administration and in the year 2016 on Occupational safety and health.

As a delegate from India attended international conferences/seminars in the year 2018 at Rio De Janeiro, Brazil on Forced Labour and also at Geneva, Switzerland on Standard Review Mechanism of conventions and recommendations in the same year organized by ILO.

In the year 2019 attended an international workshop organized by ILO at Dhaka, Bangladesh on Dispute Resolution Mechanism.

Dr. Anoop Kumar Satpathy

Anoop Satpathy is working as a faculty at the V. V. Giri National Labour Institute (VVGNI) since 2002. He is an economist by training and holds M.Phil. & Ph.D. degree in Economics Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi. At the Institute he is responsible for undertaking research and training in the area of informal economy, wage policy and minimum wages and vocational education and skills training.

He has represented Government in the ILO, Geneva as an informal economy expert relating to ILO recommendation on "Transitioning from the Informal to the Formal Economy" (in 2013 and 2014) and on Informal Sector Statistics (in 2017). He also chaired the Committee on Determining Methodology for Fixation of National Minimum Wage, (in 2018) and Drafting Committee Member of the Central Rules on Code on Wages 2019 constituted by the Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.

