

Mr. Parag Wadhawan – Managing Director, India Campus, Collins Aerospace. He did his engineering in Electrical Engineering discipline from Michigan State University and later he did his MBA from University of North Carolina. During his Engineering he actively associated with IEEE.

He started his career with General Electric, Energy division (GE) in 1999 under Operations Management Leadership Program. He successfully accomplished multiple roles with increasing responsibilities in GE till 2013.

Later he joined United Technologies as a Supply Chain Quality Manager in 2013. Because of his immense work and contributions to the company he got promoted as Director – Supplier performance within a span of 1 year 6 months.

He have the mindset to solve issues and believes that there is always multiple ways to solve issues & one must strive to find the simple solutions to problems on hand.